Course: Human Factor O&G 04: Managing Performance, Workload, Fatigue and Stress.

Author: Global Network of Companies

Date: 17 Feb 2026

Duration: 45 minutes

Topics Covered in Course: This course will provide a thorough understanding of human performance limitations such as noise, vision, memory, and attention, and how to limit the effect of these limitations to avoid error. High-risk industry workers, and specifically shift workers, often work with high levels of stress and fatigue which can have a devastating effect on safety. This course also teaches learners how to manage workload, fatigue and stress.
